

You Can't Win a War That is WRONG

Army General David Petraeus, the former top U.S. commander in Iraq, has called the situation "fragile" and "reversible" and said he will never declare victory there.

Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice at a State Department awards ceremony for Petraeus and the U.S. Ambassador to Iraq said, "Success in Iraq is not a sure thing."

The word "Victory" cannot apply to an unnecessary and illegal war that has destroyed a modern society, killed tens of thousands of Iraqis, led to ethnic cleansing of neighborhoods and displaced over 4 million Iraqis. There can be NO Winner in the "War".
